

Tax Advisors Update

Education Services

There is no substitute for the unique perspective of a CPA active in public accounting. That's why CLA has developed a strategy-packed eight hour tax seminar, created by practitioners for practitioners.

Our author team includes the top tax professionals from across the firm, bringing practical insights to the latest developments affecting individuals and small businesses. Our instructors are all active tax practitioners and seasoned speakers who have a passion for teaching and sharing their knowledge.

Course highlights

- Dissect the final Section 199A regulations and other guidance for the deduction for Qualified Business Income
- Recognize how suspended excess business losses affect the carryover year
- Apply the suspended business interest expense, and compute excess taxable income in the carryover year
- Review of IRS pronouncements, treasury regulations, and court cases
- Real-world planning tips and illustrations from a practitioner viewpoint
- Learn about the new IRS campaigns for identifying examination issues
- Hear the important estate and gift, tax exempt, payroll tax, and other federal developments

At the end of this session you will be able to:

- Evaluate debt for determining interest expense deductibility
- Identify SSTB vs non-SSTB activities and the effect on qualified business income
- Explain entity structure to take advantage of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act
- Evaluate the continuing uncertain provisions of tax reform

Who should attend?

Tax professionals, whether in public practice or industry, who need to be aware of new federal tax legislation, IRS guidance, and recent court decisions.
